1. A school trip you took

I remember when I was in grade 10, I had a school trip in my high school with my friends. I went to Phan Thiet Beach and Doi Cat near there, I went by bus, and it took me 4.5 hours to travel from HCM City to PT City. Then, I had a lot of experience with beaches, played skateboarding on the sand dunes, and visited the scenic spots there.

After that, I learned about this area and cherished the beautiful scene in this place. I really like PT cuisine; I ate a lot of seafood along the coast and street food around the roads that I pass. I like the people there because they're kind, nice and friendly.

2. Your last summer holiday

Last summer, I went to Vung Tau beach with my friends. The scenery was breathtaking, with clear blue waters and soft sand. We spent most days relaxing on the beach, soaking up the sun and swimming in the ocean. In the evenings, we would explore the local markets and try new foods. One unforgettable experience was when we rented motorbikes and rode through the winding roads that led us to some hidden beaches. We were awed by the stunning views and the thrill of the ride. We also visited the famous Jesus Christ statue, which offered a panoramic view of the sea and the city. Most importantly, we bonded over laughter, shared stories, and created memories that we will cherish forever. The trip was an exhilarating adventure that left us feeling rejuvenated and grateful for each other's company.

3. A celebration that you took part in

The sun had set, and the stars shone brightly in the sky. The air was filled with the sound of laughter and music. It was a special night, a celebration of the town's founding. Everyone was dressed in their best clothes, and the streets were decorated with colorful lights. As I walked through the crowded streets, I could smell the aroma of grilled meat and freshly baked bread. People were dancing and singing, and children were running around with sparklers in their hands. As the night went on, the fireworks lit up the sky, and the people cheered with excitement. It was a night filled with joy, laughter, and unity. I felt grateful to be a part of such a beautiful celebration.

4. How you prepare for Tet holiday last year

Last year, I was very excited about the Tet holiday, which is the Lunar New Year celebration in Vietnam. I started preparing for it two weeks before. I went shopping for new clothes and gifts for my family and friends. I even decorated my house with colorful flowers and lanterns. I spent the next few days cooking traditional Tet food such as sticky rice cakes, pickled vegetables, and braised pork belly. I also cleaned her house from top to bottom to get rid of any bad luck. On the eve of Tet, My and my family gathered around the table to enjoy the feast and exchange well wishes for the new year. Fireworks lit up the sky as they toasted to good health, happiness, and prosperity. Overall, my preparation paid off as I had a wonderful time celebrating Tet with my loved ones.

5. A competition that you took part in

Last summer, I participated in a local writing competition. The theme was "The Power of Words". I spent weeks crafting my short story, pouring my heart and soul into every word. Finally, the day of the competition arrived. I stepped up to the podium, my heart pounding with nerves. As I read my story, I felt myself becoming more and more confident. The audience was engaged, hanging on to every word. When I finished, there was a moment of silence, and then the room erupted into applause. I couldn't believe it I had won the competition! The judges praised my ability to convey emotion through my words. I felt like I was on top of the world. It was a moment I'll never forget, and it inspired me to continue writing and sharing my stories with others.

6. A challenge you had at university

As a first-year student at university, I had always been confident that I could handle any challenge that came my way. However, that confidence was tested when I was tasked with completing a group project. My group consisted of five members, and we all had different ideas about how to approach the project. Communication was challenging, and we struggled to come to a consensus. As a result, we fell behind schedule, and tensions started to rise. Despite the obstacles, I refused to give up and became the group mediator. I suggested we hold a meeting to iron out our differences, and we eventually came up with an effective plan. We worked tirelessly and eventually completed the project with great success. This experience taught me the importance of effective communication, patience, and perseverance in overcoming challenges.

7. Your first class at university

As I walked into my first class at university, my heart was pounding with excitement and nerves. The lecture hall was much larger than any classroom I had ever seen before. I found a seat in the middle of the room, feeling a bit intimidated by the sea of unfamiliar faces. The professor began speaking, introducing himself and the course syllabus. I frantically took notes, trying to absorb as much information as possible. After the lecture, we were divided into small groups to discuss the assigned readings. I was relieved to meet some friendly faces and engage in meaningful conversations about the material. As I left the class, I couldn't help feeling a sense of accomplishment. I had made it to university, and my first class had been a success. I knew there would be challenges ahead, but I was ready to tackle them head-on and make the most of my university experience.
