H = Hania, M = manager

M: Right. Have a seat, Hania

H: Thanks.

M: I've looked at your CV and see that you're from Poland. How long have you been in England?

H: I worked here last year to improve my English and then I came back to study fashion this year.

M: I see. So why do you want this job?

H: I have some spare time in the evenings after college and I'd like to earn some extra money.

M: OK. And last year you worked in another restaurant. What did you like about your last job?

H: Helping the customers and trying to give good service.

M: How did you deal with any difficult situations?

H: At the weekends we were very busy in the evenings so sometimes customers had to wait for their food. But I found that most customers are OK if you are friendly and polite. Also you need to apologize when the food is late.

M: Good. Well, I think that's everything. Do you have any questions for me?

H: Yes, it says in the advert you provide training. Can you give me more information about that?

M: Well you have lots of experience, so you probably won't need very much. But on your first day, you work with another waiter and learn about the menu and the different kinds of pizza ...
